

This content has been provided by www.webpackaging.com

Coster

Coster is a leading multinational provider of aerosol spray and dispensing packaging components and filling machines, earning annual revenues of approximately euro 150 million.

The company addresses all segments of the market with a complete range of standard aerosol valves and actuators, spray caps, spray pumps and dispensers, offering substantial manufacturing and distribution capabilities

Click here to visit this online at WEBpackaging