

This content has been provided by www.webpackaging.com

Lubricant range with anti-ogg system by Incoplas

Incoplas present their large range of lubricant packaging with integrated labelling. The Belgian company specialise in the manufacture of plastic packaging (bottles, canisters and technical parts) by Extrusion Blow Moulding technology.

Specifications:

Close partnership with multinational customers - Helping with design and development of performant, lightweight packaging - Side stripe.

Available in a range from 500 ml to 25ml.

Modular production equipment and tools at your disposal.

Integrated labelling.

Anti-Ogg system.

Incoplas provide and maintain the highest quality standards for all their products, ranging from small bottles for pharmaceutical and personal care products, over mass consumer bottles with and without handles, up to UN certified packaging for chemicals and hazardous liquids.

Visit their full catalogue at the top of this page and make direct contact with the supplier clicking on the link below.

Click here to visit this online at WEBpackaging