

This content has been provided by www.webpackaging.com

 Photo

Description

- Custom Made Products: Bespoke packaging, bottles, jars, boxes, caps, plugs, measures, spatulas, scoops, spoons, tubes, fasteners etc.
- Blow Moulding: In most thermoplastics including PVC, HDPE, LDPE, PETG, PP etc. up to 1 litre capacity. Bottles made to customers' own requirements.
- Injection Moulding: Up to a shot weight of approximately 300g, processed in most thermoplastic materials.
- Strict confidentiality at all stages.
- Our drawing office is equipped with the latest CAD facilities for component design and 3D visualisation through to full tool design.
- We have our own in-house toolroom, which has continual investment in cutting edge technology that complements our CAD/CAM design facility. We are a leading national

- A printing service is available for the decoration of bottles and other mouldings.
- 24 hours a day production to achieve maximum output at economic prices.
- Our procedures are certified to BS EN ISO 9001 (2000) (Certificate No. FM 13440). Established in 1937 we have nearly 70 years experience in the plastics industry, and continue to provide an efficient, cost-effective and personal service.

At Measom Freer, we specialise in the design, development and manufacture of bespoke products, in order to meet our customers' most exacting requirements. Attention to detail and personal service are paramount, and we thrive on producing a solution to the most demanding packaging challenge – our fine reputation in the business is testament to our experience and exceptional customer service.

Click here to visit this online at WEBpackaging