Metalicoplastico

Make your product unique with Metalicoplastico's silver range

Metalicoplastico's different decoration techniques will help you to make your products exceptional. This silver style of decoration is available in matte, bright or givré and will give you a high end finish for your luxurious products.

Their special "givré" decoration technique makes your packaging exclusive and unique. As with any kind of high quality jewel you will never have two identical pieces, their design will be always different. Alongside their crystallized aspect these jars have a smooth touch!

On the photos you can see the huge variety of combinations possible to create a complete product range.

Metalicoplastico offer complete packaging solutions with an assortment of models and capacities, including luxurious jars, bottles, make up cases and mascaras all available in a wide variety of shapes and sizes. They also offer a wide variety of decoration techniques to make your products unique.
