New 6 litre 'Silver Dumbbell' jar available direct from stock at Neville and More

The new bulky jar has been designed to provide a meaty, cutting edge premium image to enable marketers of sports supplement products to differentiate added value brands.

The market for sports nutrition and bodybuilding products is growing rapidly throughout Europe.

To support this growth, Neville and More the market leading supplier of bottles and jars to the Healthcare industry, has just developed a new 6 litre 'Silver Dumbbell' plastic HDPE jar.

The new bulky jar has been designed to provide a meaty, cutting edge premium image to enable marketers of sports supplement products to differentiate added value brands.

To complement this powerful pack, a matching silver 'easy grip' ribbed 120mm closure is also held in stock and available for very flexible minimum order quantities of just a single carton.

For further information on all of Neville and More's top quality jars and closures for the Healthcare industry, log onto www.nevilleandmore.com/healthcare-packaging and see the huge range of products all available direct from stock in user friendly single carton minimum order quantities.

Buying bottles and jars was never more flexible thanks to Neville and More.
