Virospack

Virospack's coffrets helps to improve your product presentation

These coffrets are suitable for Virospack's fantastic small format vials with any type of closure. Any configuration you could imagine is possible, for example vial and flat cap, dropper or spatula cap, from 3 to 30ml.

This company offers their full packaging solution, allowing brands to communicate extensively on the benefits of their product.

Virospack's Coffrets size containers are perfect for presentation boxes, ideal for beauty kits, treatment packs, promotional coffrets, complete "cures", travel pouches or customised presentations. These precise and convenient miniatures are being developed also for special event promotions in-store and direct marketing offers that really get your attention.

They export top quality products to all continents, their worldwide outlook along with a dynamic workforce allow them to cater for the demanding international market.

Virospack Group is continuously improving and investing in new technology to satisfy market demands and create new trends in the industry.
