Clear PET bottle with intricate silk screen printing. It creates a striking visual that embodies the elegance of Laura Mercier's minimalist design.

The clear bottle features a subtle, elegant texture patterned in full coverage, with the brand name prominently displayed in a sleek, black font near the top, while product details are positioned lower on the bottle.

The design is completed with a simple, black cap, contributing to its sophisticated and clean appealing.

Silkscreen can present graphics in solid colors, and, with the thickness of ink, extends patterns from 2-dimensional to 3-dimensional, creating a "touchable" texture on the fingertips.
