When I look at the faces of the deserving young people we help through the foundation, it is so rewarding to see the impact we are making on their lives. And when I look at the faces of the wonderful volunteers who support us in this work, it is doubly rewarding!

In 2022 we were fortunate enough to be able to support 31 organisations with the help from 162 volunteers and impact the lives of 3336 young people.

This to me is the true meaning of shared value – it benefits all those involved!”

Tim Eaves
Chairman of the Quadpack Foundation
