BE GREEN – IT’S A CALLING – IT’S THE FUTURE

Seeing the prospect and the growth for Green Sector in 2007, management team decided to explore and experiment

Developing environmentally friendly materials to replace or reduce the use of plastic. To this day we have developed many environmentally friendly composite organic fiber materials derived from agricultural waste

This promotes self natural degradation, recyclability, and pricing advantage

Every product has passed many rigorous testing And received many international certifications and invention awards

Investing in equipments and production capacity, from “pulping and slurry, tooling, forming, to film lamination” we have a complete in-line production system. Having our own development team and high speed automated production process, we can produce with high yield rate without sacrificing quality.
